

Brownbagging with the GSWS, A Writer's Series
Presentations in the Herzstein Room, Zimmerman Library 2nd flr
noon-1:00, Wednesdays

Date	Topic	Presenter
Sept 23	Citing sources: how, when, and why	Christina Desai, Ref Librarian
Sept 30	Strategic reading and notetaking Tips for getting the most out of your reading without having to memorize every single word. Please bring an article of your choice.	Palm & Probasco
Oct 7	APA, citation and reference formats Finding your way through the APA 6 th Ed.	Christine Probasco, Tutor
Oct 14	How to write a thesis statement, organizing your thoughts A good thesis statement is key to focusing your literature searches, your research, and your writing.	Dr. Palm Coordinator GSWS
Oct 21	How to build a Stephen King toolbox, and writing with style (characters, actors, and plotlines) As in any other craft, having good tools and knowing how to use them helps the writer express his/her vision more creatively (yes, even in academic writing).	Dr. Palm Coordinator GSWS
Oct 28	How to write an IRB (Rm 254 of Zimmerman for this presentation) The key steps in the process of submitting an IRB proposal: finding the needed forms, deciding which forms are appropriate, and how to write the IRB proposal in manner that will expedite its approval.	Susan Copeland, PhD College of Education
Nov 4	How to write a lit review, Part 1 Explaining the "job" of a literature review (social sciences version), what it should accomplish for the reader in addition to establishing your scholarly credibility.	Dr. Palm Coordinator GSWS
Nov 11	How to write a lit review, Part 2 This will be more of a workshop than a presentation. I encourage people to bring their own lit review materials and we will work through them to build a lit review.	Dr. Palm Coordinator GSWS
Nov 18	Grant proposal writing Some basic guidelines to get your proposal past the first screen to an actual reviewer. How to avoid the pitfalls of bad proposal writing.	Dr. Palm Coordinator GSWS
Nov 25	By request, anyone who is here for Thanksgiving weekend
Dec 2	Repeat of any of the above, by popular request

Other presentations by the Writing Studio

Sept 22	TEC 100	12:30-2:00	Word 07 for APA	Morad-McCoy
Nov 10	TEC 100	12:30-2:00	EndNote Basics	Morad-McCoy
Nov 17	TEC 100	12:30-2:00	Word 07 for APA	Morad-McCoy

The Technology and Education Center (TEC) is Bldg 64 on the campus map.

Both the Herzstein Room and the TEC have limited seating. Please RSVP for the above presentations by calling the TEC front desk, 277-0462.

For future workshops, go to <http://coe.unm.edu/writingstudio>

Other presentations of interest

Office of Graduate Studies (OGS) and Career Services are offering workshops on formatting your final dissertation or thesis manuscript. See the schedule at http://www.career.unm.edu/students/graduate\_workshoplising.php