Reviewing a Graded Paper

After the assignment's Post Date you can check to see if your paper has been graded by your instructor. To check for a graded paper and to review a graded paper:

1. Login to your TurnItIn account and click on the course title.
2. Your Assignment Inbox & Portfolio appears.
3. Click Show details.
4. The expanded Inbox appears.

The screenshot shows the 'Existential Psychotherapy' assignment inbox. It features a table with columns for START, DUE, POST, STATUS, and ACTIONS. The assignment 'Philosophical Origins' is listed with a submission date of 24-Aug-2011 and a status of 'Submission for this assignment is complete.' Below the table, there is a yellow box containing assignment details: title, instructions, search criteria, and late submission policy. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Report', 'GradeMark', and 'Download', along with a 'View' link under the GradeMark column.

5. You will see View under the GradeMark column. Click View.
6. Your paper appears with your instructor's comments and grade.

The screenshot displays the TurnItIn paper review interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Originality', 'GradeMark', and 'PeerMark'. The assignment is identified as 'Assignment 1' by 'MICHAEL STUDENT02'. The TurnItIn logo is visible, along with similarity and grade information: 'SIMILARITY --% (INDEX)' and 'GRADE 19 (OUT OF 20)'. The main area shows a preview of the student's paper, 'FRANKL PAPER', with a 'View' icon. On the right, a 'General Comments' box contains the instructor's feedback: 'Nicely done. A good take on Frankl's ideas and how you would incorporate them into your theory.'
