SPRING 2019 COURSE OFFERING
LEAD 505-001 VISIONARY LEADERSHIP
FOR LEARNING (3 Credit Hours)
CRN # 47665  UNM COE TECH 140
Tuesdays 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

The LEAD 505 course is designed to integrate holistic education and leadership concepts through spiritual, mental, physical, and social well-being. We will explore 16 wellness pillars of the CORN POLLEN Model and students will create their own holistic model which can be used for leadership, classroom curriculum, and lifelong learning. Furthermore, the course will include guest speakers, interactive sessions, and hands-on learning. Student final presentations will culminate their experiences and learnings in this course.
