EDUCATION AND AFRICAN AMERICAN CHILDREN

Fall, 2017
REGISTER TODAY!

Course info: LLSS 553, Section 001, CRN#56090

Meeting time and place: Tuesdays, 4:15 – 6:45 p.m., Technology and Education Center (TEC), room 230

Brief Description: This seminar examines education through the lens of the African American experience. Specifically, discussions will probe the social, historical, philosophical, political, and legal aspects of education in the context of African American culture, language, community, and institutional life.

Contact:
Dr. T. Peele-Eady
Department of Language, Literacy, and Sociocultural Studies
Educational Thought & Sociocultural Studies (ETSS)
Office: 210 Hokona Hall
Email: tbpeele@unm.edu (preferred)