Language, Literacy and Sociocultural Studies
Intent to Take Comprehensive Exam for Completion of the Master’s Degree

Instructions to students: In the semester prior to when you will take LLSS 590 or write your comprehensive exams on your own, please meet with your major advisor and two other faculty to complete this form and your Program of Studies. Submit both to Debra Schaffer in the LLSS office by the end of the semester prior to your exam semester. This form will be forwarded to your LLSS 590 instructor.

NOTE: If the instructor of LLSS 590 is full time faculty, he or she can serve as one member of your committee.

Date of Program of Studies committee meeting: _____________________________

Graduate Student Name:  _______________________________________________

Signatures of Faculty Members on Your Committee:

Chair:____________________________________________O  I agree to provide feedback on drafts.

Member:_________________________________________

Member:__________________________________________

Final Examination Version (Check one and describe your project in the spaces provided and on the back. You may attach sheets if you need additional space.)

O Scholarly paper: A review of literature, a report of research, or other scholarly work of publishable quality. You may start something new in response to questions by your committee, or you may revise a paper that you wrote earlier in your studies.

Plan or Questions:

O Dossier: Follow the guidelines of the New Mexico Public Education Department, available at Teach New Mexico (http://www.teachnm.org/pdd.html). The dossier uses the NMPED format, but must reflect what was addressed in your program and include academic citations. If you select this option, you should familiarize yourself with the directions and collect all materials prior to LLSS 590. You may focus on one, two, or all three of the following strands.

Focus: Strand A--

Strand B--

Strand C--